Debbie Reynolds a leading lady of the 1950's and '60's, began her career with MGM studios when she was just 16 years old. Ever since then, this multi-talented, perky, wholesome woman has starred in numerous movies, singing and dancing her way into the hearts of millions. Many of her accolades include an Academy Award Nomination for "The Unsinkable Molly Brown", 2 Golden Globe Nominations, an Emmy Award, and a Lifetime Achievement Award (the first woman to receive this award). She also amassed numerous Top 10 hits in the 1950's and 60's including the hit song "Tammy" that remained number 1 on the billboard charts for 5 weeks. She still loves the fine art of show business and much to the delight of her fans, continues to perform today. Don't miss this chance to see this living legend live in concert!
